STAT 6. [] Mrs. Fling, in the office of Senator Margaret Chase Smith, called and suggested 3:30 on Monday, 11 September 1967, for the Director to meet with the Senator. This was confirmed with the Director's office and later with Mrs. Fling.

STAT 7. [] Dorothy Fosdick, of the Senate National Security and International Operations Subcommittee staff, called to say that Senator Jackson has been asked to grant an interview to two PRAVDA correspondents, Georg Ratiani, Chief Editor of PRAVDA, and Serguei Vichnevski, PRAVDA's Washington representative. Miss Fosdick said the McKenna said he had arranged the interview with Senator Pastore and in looking back on it, decided he should not have done so. He said [] in approaching him, had said his visit was semi-official in nature and had to be cleared with his Agency since he was involved in sensitive work. McKenna said he assumed he worked for the Agency and, since he was a Rhode Island constituent, he arranged an appointment. He said the Senator saw [] for approximately fifteen minutes and wrote a routine note to the Vice President afterward. As far as McKenna is concerned, they have no further interest. I pointed out to him that this case had come to my attention and I merely wanted him to understand that if [] was to pursue his occupational interests in this field, he would be doing so not as an Agency employee, but would be assuming a new full-time position. McKenna said he had understood this to be the case and thanked me for getting in touch with him.
